Portland State University

Coral Sales Company of Portland, Oregon, is pleased to offer scholarships for the 2025-2026 school year of $1,000 each to two outstanding individuals, one male and one female, pursuing Civil Engineering studies or Construction Engineering studies in the School of Engineering. The criteria for the scholarships are as follows:

- 1.) The recipient must intend to pursue a career in Highway/Transportation Engineering or Highway Construction in the Pacific Northwest.
- 2.) Students who have demonstrated outstanding leadership qualities and participation in extracurricular activities, both civic as well as professional, will be given significant weight.
- 3.) The recipient must have resided in the Northwest (Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana or Alaska) for the last six years.
- 4.) Students currently at senior or graduate standing will be considered.
- 5.) G.P.A. will not be considered in award of these scholarships. However, applicants must meet the minimum G.P.A. requirements for the School of Engineering.
- 6.) Prior Coral Sales Company/Douglas P. Daniels Scholarship Recipients are not eligible.

Each Applicant is required to submit a completed Application, their Resume and Essay. The Essay should be about their experience with Transportation including what brought them to this field of study, Students who have done internships, other work-related experience or any extracurricular activities related to the Transportation Industry will have preference.

The School of Engineering will review the applications and select the two most qualified candidates; one male and one female. The Applications, Resumes, and Essays must be submitted to Coral Sales Company by the school before October 1, 2024.

Coral Sales Company will review the information to verify that Student Selections meet the criteria. The Recipients and the School of Engineering will both be notified by Coral Sales when the school's selections have been approved. An invitation to a Scholarship Awards Event will be included in the notification letter.
